Due to the annual lease renewal we have not had the time to update October's newsletter we apologize the inconvenience.

FALL LEAF PICK-UP TO START

It is that time of year again. As a courtesy to our residents we will pick-up leaves that are placed at the curb. This is a leaf only pick up please keep sticks and branches separate.

PROJECTS WILL CONTINUE THROUGH THE END OF SUMMER INTO FALL COLUMBIA PARK

Concrete work will continue in the community weather permitting. Please be cautious driving and have some patience as we work to make improvements.

TREES IN THE COMMUNITY

We have had many conversations with the community regarding trees. Tree trimming is the responsibility of our residents.

Any branches removed by residents can be placed on the curb and maintenance will pick-up

If resident hires a contractor, the contractor must take all the branches and debris out of the property. Management will remove damaged and dead trees. Stumps will be left

WALKING PETS IN THE COMMUNITY

Per the community guidelines Dogs are only allowed to be walked on the dog path and around your homesite. Walking your dog in the street is not permitted. Dogs or cats must be leashed at all times .

There are parking spots located by the office and by the dog walk for residents to park and walk their dogs. Please do not walk your dog while driving a golfcart or riding a bike.

All residents that have cats must keep them indoors not let them out to roam. All of our residents should not have to pick-up cat waste and by
